

Science Ninjas Birthday Party Release Form

Services Offered:

Science Ninjas will provide a Scientist and one assistant for up to 15 children or two assistants for up to 25 children to perform science experiments for one hour.

- Science Ninjas will arrive fifteen minutes in advance to set up the projector, organize materials, and lay down plastic to ensure a quick, safe cleanup
- Following a brief introduction, a comic will be projected on the wall detailing the basic science of how rockets work
- Kids at the party will be provided with balloons to blow up and release to become familiar with gas propulsion
- Science Ninjas will provide a demonstration on creating contained explosions in a ziplock bag and then, after dividing kids into three groups, Science Ninjas will assist kids in building their own
- continuing to work in three groups, kids at the party will be provided with plastic canisters, water, and antacid tablets to make individual rockets. Kids will be provided with materials like masking tape and markers to decorate their rockets, which they get to keep.
- Science Ninjas will perform a final demonstration with larger rockets. The size and quantity of the rockets will depend on the space provided. Kids will be invited to participate in the demo by adding fuel to the rockets.
- A black and white hand drawn birthday card will be given to the birthday child.
- Science Ninjas will clean up all materials and leave the site within fifteen minutes of concluding the final rocket demonstration.

Participation:

Because science activities can present risks (although they may be minor) we ask that you please encourage your child to follow the directions of the staff member. If you have any questions about your child's ability to safely follow any instructions he/she is given, please alert the staff member so we can best tend to the specific need.

In consideration for your child's participation in our activities, and by signing this form, you acknowledge, agree, and understand that your child's participation is voluntary and you assume the risks associated with the activities in which he/she will be participating. Such risks may include, but are not limited to, the risk of personal injury, physical injury or other harm. You and you alone, are solely responsible for taking proper care to limit his/her risk of injury or harm. This waiver specifically includes any claims made by you arising from the alleged negligent acts of Science Ninjas, its employees, agents, and any related parent and/or subsidiary entities.
